EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.] _____

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

Incapacity. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as impaired by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency so as to be incapable of realizing and making rational decisions with respect to financial responsibilities.);

Disability. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as physically impaired to the extent of being unable, after reasonable effort, to participate in a credit counseling briefing in person, by telephone, or through the Internet.);

Active military duty in a military combat zone.

5. The United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator has determined that the credit counseling requirement of 11 U.S.C. § 109(h) does not apply in this district.

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs. To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. If the answer to an applicable question is "None," mark the box labeled "None." If additional space is needed for the answer to any question, use and attach a separate sheet properly identified with the case name, case number (if known), and the number of the question.

- (b) All fixed Non-Base fees must be paid in Advance of the Service by the Client.
- (c) Fees for services based on time and expenses shall be paid within 30 days of the Client's receipt of the bill for such services; provided, however, that the Attorney may require the payment of a retainer fee for non-base services that are expected to require more than 2 hours of the Attorney's time.
- (d) The Client understands that if the Client does not pay the non-base fees as provided in this Agreement then the Attorney has no obligation to provide the non-base services and has the right to file a motion to withdraw as the attorney for the Client in the Chapter 7 case, the contested case, or the adversary proceeding.

10. Client's Obligations.

The Client's obligations are as follows:

- (a) To promptly pay all Base and Non-Base Legal fees and charges.
- (b) To provide the Attorney with all requested documents, bills statements, payment advices, bank records, tax returns, tax bills, appraisals, retirement and savings account, and income information and to sign any and all necessary forms to allow the Attorney to secure such documentation.
- (c) To provide accurately and honestly all of the information necessary to prepare and file the Chapter 7 bankruptcy case, and other motions or proceedings arising during the course of the case.
- (d) To timely respond to all letters, emails and telephone calls from the Attorney or any member of his staff.
- (e) To keep the Attorney advised at all times of the Client's mailing and physical addresses, telephone numbers, and email addresses.

- (f) To appear at the first meeting of creditors (the 341 meeting) and at any other court hearings or meetings as may be required by the Court or any other party.
- (g) To keep all scheduled office appointments with the Attorney and to notify the Attorney in advance of any problems with the timing and scheduling or rescheduling of such appointments.
- (i) To provide any information requested of the Client by the Chapter 7 Trustee, the United States Trustee, or any other party in the case, unless the Court rules that the Client is not required to provide such information.
- (j) To respond as soon as possible to any requests for the Client by the Attorney.
- (l) To provide current bank account information to include monthly statements as requested and online account balances as of the date of the signing of your bankruptcy petition packet.

11. Advance Payment Retainer

The Illinois Supreme Court requires Attorney to advise Client of the following information. The fees paid by Client are to be treated as an Advance Payment Retainer. This means that the payments made by Client to Attorney are present payment to the Attorney in exchange for the Attorney's commitment to provide legal services to Client in the future. The fees paid by the Client will be deposited in the Attorney's business account and not in the Attorney's trust account. This means that Attorney owns the fees immediately upon payment. If the Attorney's representation of Client ends before the retainer has been exhausted, the retainer is subject to refund to the Client pursuant to the Rules of Professional Conduct.

The Client has the option to employ a security retainer. However, the Attorney is unwilling to represent Client without receiving the Advance Payment Retainer because when the bankruptcy petition is filed all nonexempt property owned by Client as of the date of the filing of the bankruptcy petition will be property of the bankruptcy estate. Fees held in a client trust account do not belong to the Attorney and may be reached by creditors. Money paid by Client to Attorney for the filing fee, the expense of the credit counseling course, and the financial management course will be used by Attorney for those purposes. The Advance Payment Retainer is advantageous to the Client filing bankruptcy in order to protect the funds from creditor collection.

The Client has the right to choose the type of the retainer. Therefore, Client should not execute this Agreement unless Client authorizes the Advance Payment Retainer.

12. Receipt of Disclosures

Client acknowledges that Client has received copies of all Disclosure Documents attached to this Agreement, including (i) the Clerk's Notice mandated by Section 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and Section 527(a) of the Bankruptcy Code; (ii) Important Information About Bankruptcy Assistance Services From an Attorney or Bankruptcy Petition Preparer" mandated by Section 527(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; (iii) Notice to be Provided Pursuant to Section 527(c) of the Bankruptcy Code; and (iv) Notice to be Provided Pursuant to Section 527(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

In the event that Attorney and Client determine that a Chapter 13 case should be filed rather than a Chapter 7, this agreement will be null and void and a new agreement signed in the form of the Court's Model Retention Agreement for Chapter 13 cases. All fees paid will be applied to such Chapter 13 case.

Attorney will not file bankruptcy case on behalf of Client until all documents requested have been provided and payment of all fees and costs as set forth herein have been paid in full. Client's delay in providing requested documents and payment of fees and costs could result in loss of money or property due to creditor collection. Bankruptcy cannot stop creditor collection until the case is filed. It is Client's responsibility to advise Attorney of any sale date in a foreclosure proceeding and any state court lawsuit and deadlines. Attorney is not representing Client in any foreclosure proceeding or state court collection matter.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.
